Swimmers set three Guam records

Competitors at the Guam Swimming Federation Long Course All-Island Invitational set three new Guam records yesterday at the Hagåtña pool, one that was previously held for 26 years. One relay and two individual records were set, all by members of the Tsunami Swim Club.

Misaki Iijima set a new 17-18 record in the women's 200-meter butterfly, Soujyu Usui a 17-18 record in the men's 200 butterfly and the team of Samantha Hon, Leilani Koiwa, Madison Packbier and Kylie Miller an 11-12 record in the 200 freestyle relay.

"I'm really glad the girls' relay team broke our record," said Iijima, a member of the previous record-holding 11-12 team. "It was set when we were their age, so I'm proud of them."

The girls said they were focused on getting the record all year and couldn't control themselves after they heard their time. Their swim came in at 2 minutes, 7.18 seconds, barely sneaking past the previous time of 2:07.33.

"We were very nervous," Packbier said. "We tried really hard for this because (Kylie) is turning 13 next week so this was our last chance."

"We trained really hard for this," Hon said.

"It was fun," Koiwa said.

"We've been trying to do this for a long time," Miller said. "I can turn 13 without crying now."

Usui said he's been working on the 200 butterfly for the past three months, swimming it every meet and trying to drop time to get down to the record.

It held for 25 years, 362 days and was set by Jonathan Sakovich in a time of 2:14.04. Usui finished at 2:12.11.

Iijima's record-setting race ended at 2:37.19, more than three seconds faster than the previous record set by Barbara Gayle of 2:40.33.

That record stood for 24 years and one day.

Both Sakovich and Gayle competed for Guam in the 1988 Summer Olympics in Korea.

"I'm just going to continue breaking my own times," Iijima said.

Aside from Tsunami, three other teams competed at the event yesterday: Manhoben Swim Club, Andersen Marlins Swim Team and Manukai Athletic Club.

Other teams pleased

Don San Agustin, the meet official and coach for Manhoben, said he was pleased with all the records set, even if they weren't by the swimmers on his team.

"As an official, you want the best for the kids. You want the Guam swimmers to do the best they can," he said. "You set goals and encourage them along the way until they achieve that."

Mike Wood, president of the Andersen Marlins, said he was pleased with all the work the kids on his team had put in all season, and the effort they've shown to their coaches.

"All these kids did really well," Wood said. "We had a kid (Riley Solenberg) drop 5 seconds off his 50 free time. ... I couldn't be happier."

Mary Kioshi, a coach for Manukai, said her team did just what she hoped: continue to improve.

"Pretty much all my swimmers took off time, and that will put them in the A standards this year, and of course that's our goal," Kioshi said. "Daniel (Devlin) is brand new to us and he hasn't swum since November. He did a great job for his first time."

"Alex (Gonzalez) has just been killing it every meet. That boy just keeps taking off time and time and time."

Also at the meet, the Guam Swimming Federation officially recognized record-setting times from a meet that took place in Saipan on March 22.

Iijima set records there in the 200 individual medley (2:33.62), 400 IM (5:24.41) and 200 free (2:16.54).

Also in Saipan, Emma Rione set a Guam 17-18 record in the 400 free (5:01.54), and Caleb White set an 11-12 record in the 200 butterfly.

White said he's been swimming for four years, but that was his first Guam record.

"I'm going to try to keep doing the 200 fly. I'm not sure about others," White said.

White and Rione also swim for Tsunami.

Iijima now holds more Guam 17-18 records than she can remember, expanding to nearly every event except the breaststroke.

"I'm really bad at swimming breaststroke," she said. "I'm not even close."
